Rule Change Request Document

Name: Jens Martin

Country: IMGA Rules Committee

Summary of Change Requested:

Although generally accepted as a rule, there is nothing in the rule book which stipulates that a rider must be in the saddle when starting their part of a race.

Current Rule Book Wording:

N/A

Suggested New Rule Book Wording:

CR22.9 Riders must be in the saddle with feet astride, but not necessarily in the stirrups, when crossing the Start/Finish or Changeover line during their part of a race (except for individual Run and Ride and the first rider in Pairs Run and Ride).

Reason for Change Request:

Corrects a current error in the rules.
