Rule Change Request Document

Name:	Davy Quinn
-------	-------------------

Country:	Scotland
----------	-----------------

Summary of Change Requested:

Amend the wording in the Bank Race to ensure that the rider hangs the number on the Board hook by the eyelet.

Current Rule Book Wording:

Rider 1 rides to the cone, collects a number, rides to the stand, hangs the number on a hook on the board with the black side showing.
The remaining three numbers are collected individually from the number holder and hung on a hook on the board with the black side showing by either rider, provided that the second rider collects and hangs the remaining number(s) (at least one) before riding to cross the Start/Finish line.

Suggested New Rule Book Wording:

Rider 1 rides to the cone, collects a number, rides to the stand, hangs the number, by the eyelet, on a hook on the board with the black side showing.
The remaining three numbers are collected individually from the number holder and hung, by the eyelet, on a hook on the board with the black side showing by either rider, provided that the second rider collects and hangs the remaining number(s) (at least one) before riding to cross the Start/Finish line.

Reason for Change Request:

Revised wording to ensure riders hang the number on the hook by the eyelet as this season there have been instances where the zero has been hung by the centre of the number and others who placed the number on top of the hook.
